Our Values

Excellence and Authenticity

We remain authentic, without compromise. Our ambition is to defend the French and foreign repertoires. Our passion for the performing arts drives us to strive for ever-higher standards of excellence. We recognise, support and honour all those who give their best. We strive to make the Compagnie a platform for excellence without elitism, bringing together the best talent.

Responsibility and Commitment

We pursue a rigorous CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) policy and are constantly looking for ways to improve it. As a publicly-funded institution, we have not only an artistic role to play, but also a social, economic and political one. Our commitment and responsibility to remain an exemplary company is paramount.

Inspiration and Innovation

We aim to present performances and educational programmes that unleash potential and inspire change in everyone. We aim to inspire and innovate in every aspect of the Compagnie.

Progress and Service

We progress with purpose. Our teams are bound together by a shared love of the performing arts, a constant drive to improve and a greater, sustainable vision. We are made to serve the performing arts and play with respect.

Our Missions

Local and International Creation

We want to share our artistic proposals with as many people as possible. That's why we pursue a rich and diversified policy of cultural action. Creating an artistic heritage that is open to the world, both locally and internationally, is a key part of the creative process.

Outreach and Appeal

We aim to promote the attractiveness, dynamism and influence of our region through our performances and educational programmes. We set up cooperation and cultural exchange programmes in France, Europe, across the Mediterranean and throughout the world.

Community and Diversity

We aim to be a unifying example, welcoming all audiences in a spirit of joy, sharing, collaboration and diversity, transcending gender, nationality and social barriers, while giving priority to secularism. We express ourselves through the universal language of the performing arts. On stage and off, we seek to bring together an inclusive community with no boundaries. We embrace multicultural diversity and strive to create a sense of belonging. Together, we are more powerful.

Transmission and Democratisation

We promote the democratisation of culture by offering cultural activities that are accessible to all. We reinforce art in education, artistic and cultural education, artistic practice and access to theatre, dance and music from the earliest age. We promote the principle of educability by encouraging young people to use their resources and abilities to influence their environment and help it evolve, while building a rich personal culture.
